NÜAJ PHOTOGRAPHY

Nüaj is born in a little french city called Paris thirty years ago. Not really good at school, he loved dreaming at the back of the classroom. He started music at six years old and became twelve years later a cello player.

In the meantimes, he travelled all over the world, India, Russia, Brazil, Peru, Chile, USA, Europe, taking thousands of photographs.

Something started... Maybe.

He didnt know that he could do something with it.

Then he fell in love with New Zealand and everything made sense.

Nüaj Photography was born.

Trying to make the reality as beautiful as possible, Nuaj work between light and shadow, playing with the geometry, the lines. Finding some beauty in the ugly.

Trying to take the best of a wall, a bin, an industrial light or just a rope. He disguises the reality to stick it on a wall. Maybe it is the reality through its child's eyes?

Or maybe just a piece of poetry in everything around him?

Let's see
